Book Week

We have lots of exciting things planned for book week next week. Don't forget children can come to school at 8.30am and read in the hall supervised by school staff. On Tuesday Year 6 will be working with the Royal Shakespeare Company; this has been hugely enjoyed by past Year 6 children. On Wednesday we have author Andy Seed coming to work with children in Year 2 and above. On Thursday we will be showing off our book character fancy dress! We will also be joined on Thursday by Wakefield Library Service who will be sharing books with children in Foundation stage and Key Stage 1. What a jam packed week!

Year 5 English

As part of their persuasive letter writing unit, Year 5 have been working alongside the Leeds United Supporter's Trust to persuade young fans to become the next generation of the future trust. The winning letter will receive two tickets to a Leeds United match in the executive box - watch this space!
