What a busy half term with so many exciting activities: Curriculum Talent Awards; NSPCC Assemblies and Workshops; Art Week; Anti-Bullying Week; various sports sessions including dance and football; Christmas performances and parties, to name a few! We hope you all have a super break and we will see you on 9th January.

Safeguarding

The following links provide a wealth of information to help keep children safe over Christmas. The first links to the National Autistic Society and provides a list of tips that may help during the festive period. The second links to the NSPCC website with detailed advice about setting up parental controls on a full range of devices. The third links to government information with top tips to keep children safe online this Christmas.
